

Agnimitra Paul

Agnimitra Paul, popularly known as Agni, is born and brought up in Asansol, West Bengal. She has done her schooling from Loreto Convent Asansol. MBA from Jadavpur University and Diploma in Fashion designing from Birla Institute of Liberal Arts and Management Sciences.

She started her career in 1997 with her designer label 'INGA'. Her designer ensembles with distinct signatures are displayed at many prominent exhibitions expressing Simplicity, Values, Cultural Ethos, Differentiation and Modernity in unbelievable way.

Her distinguished client list cuts across Caste, Creed, Religion and Gender. No wonder; that a segregated section of Celebrities representing the Mumbai film industry and the Kolkata film industry, Politics and Sports feels proud in wearing her signature labels.

Agnimitra is also part of the Central Board of Film Certification or what we generally call the Censor Board.

Agnimitra is a designer with a difference....her heart cries out for the people in need.

Agnimitra started a project in Kolkata's Alipore Correctional Home where she teaches stitching to the female convicts and gives them work in order to make these women financially independent.

Agnimitra is the chairwoman of a committee of CII...conglomeration of Indian Industriescalled IWN....Indian women network. With CII she has started a project in SUNDERBAN where she is teaching stitching to underprivileged women and making them empowered.

Agnimitra is the convener of PRONAMa project of Kolkata police and NGO The Bengal where all kinds of help are provided to the senior citizens of Kolkata. She looks after this project.

Agnimitra is the brand ambassador of LORETO RAINBOW HOMES where education employment and other forms of skill development is taught to the slum children of Kolkata and also given shelter and security.

Agnimitra was privileged to gift Mrs. Hillary Clinton a Kantha stole and the US secretary of State also sent her a letter appreciating her work.

She has worked with stars like Mithun Chakraborty, Babul Supriyo, Sridevi Kapoor, Esha Deol, Manisha Koirala, Yami Goutam, Neha Dhupia, Minissha Lumba, Chitrangada Singh, Prasenjit Chatterjee, Rituparna Sengupta, Vinay Pathak and almost all stars from Tollywood.

Agnimitra Paul is a designer with a difference. All her personal shows are for a noble cause. Agnimitra says "In my country where more than half the populations are below the poverty line, making bridal lehengas for two lakhs and more sounds frivolous. So I want to take fashion to a different levelfashion for a cause, fashion for the people." So her shows whether for the visually challenged children of 'National Association for the Blind' or for the acid burned victims of Dhaka and Kolkata or the trafficked girls.....she has been successful to raise money for these causes by auctioning her clothes.

All these actions brought significant attention not only from her Clients but millions appreciate her various Social and Charitable causes. Very recently AGNIMITRA has been working with West Bengal Government with Muslim. She has received a number of prestigious awards Swayam Siddha Award from Rotary Club, Sonar Sansar Women of Substance Award, Tumi Ananya Award, Bharat Nirman Award, Indian of the year Award .. to name a few. The most recent award was presented to her by Times Of India called the TIME POWER WOMEN AWARD.

Agnimitra prefers to walk the ramp with the poor artisans as show stoppers rather than celebrities which others do.

Her dream her brand 'INGA', 'AGNI' & 'AGNIMIRA PAUL' will be worn and appreciated by the crème de la crème of the world but also becomes the most treasured possession of the little village girl residing in one of the remotest villages of India..... Her dream is that her brand should touch every human chord.

She recently did a very unique show with the All India Football federation where she made the National Football Team along with Coach Stephen Constantine and President AIFF Mr. Praful Patel walk the ramp in her designed outfits representing different states of India for the cause of National Integration.

She is part of the ISL family especially the TATA family by designing the logo and jersey for the Jamshedpur Football club JFC 2017.

Agnimitra Paul also designed for the 36 member executive committee for the U 17 FIFA WORLD CUP FINAL in Kolkata including FIFA president Mr Gianni Infantino.

She not only designed for human but she also designed for GOD She designed an exquisite MAA DURGA and Her family in 34 Kg. of gold which became a benchmark in the history of Durga Puja in Kolkata.

Agnimitra Paul is simply an awesome display of women power...
